Morehead State University

Morehead State University, founded in 1922, is a state-supported, multi-purpose university with a 455-acre campus. It is located "where the Bluegrass meets Appalachia."

President of the University is Dr. Adron Doran, who has served at that post since being named president in 1954. He has guided the school's growth from a state college to an outstanding, ever-expanding university.

The University is composed of five Schools — Applied Science and Technology, Education, Science and Mathematics, Social Studies, and the Graduate School.

Both undergraduate and Master's degrees are offered. The Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees, as well as the Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Music, Master of Higher Education, and Master of Arts in Education degrees, are offered. Additional work beyond the Master's degree may be earned.

There are more than 50 major structures on the campus with a total value estimated at more than $55,000,000. Currently nearing completion is a $15,000,000 expansion program. Five new buildings were completed in 1967.

The most spectacular of the new buildings is Mignon Tower, a 16-story cylindrical residence hall for women, which houses 300 coeds

All athletes on scholarships at Morehead may live in this 132-man residence hall located on the hillside north of the stadium. It was completed in 1967 at a cost of $425,000. There are 33 air-conditioned suites, housing four men each.

in 75 suites. Built at a cost of $1,540,000, the tower is the center dormitory in a complex of four women's residence halls named in honor of Mrs. Mignon Doran, wife of the president.

Completed in 1968 were the Education Building, which cost $3,005,000, and an addition to Baird Music Hall, which cost $1,289,000.

The $1,200,000 Claypool-Young Art Building, the only building on a Kentucky campus devoted entirely to art and art education, was dedicated October 19, 1968.

Construction is now underway on two additional residence halls—a 21-story, 512-bed dormitory for men and a 10-story, 400-bed residence hall for women. Both should be completed before fall registration in 1969.

Over 6,200 students attend the University, and numerous extension programs are available. More than 8,000 persons are alumni of Morehead. The University has over 350 faculty members, and 40 states and 23 foreign countries are represented among the student body.

Morehead State University is a member of the Ohio Valley Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. The University plays an intercollegiate schedule in basketball, football, baseball, track, cross country, soccer, tennis, golf, wrestling, and swimming.

COACHES AND TEAM PERSONNEL

Bob Wright – Head Coach

Bob Wright, a dedicated student of the game, is beginning his fourth season at the helm of the Morehead State University basketball program.

His three Eagle teams have finished with identical 8-6 Ohio Valley Conference records. Last year's team, slowed by injuries to Willie "Hobo" Jackson and Randy Williams, finished fourth in the conference and 12-9 overall.

Wright is hoping that this year's squad, with a solid group of substitutes available, can make a good run for the conference title.

In Wright's first season, 1965-66, the Eagles posted a 12-12 overall record and tied for third place in the conference with Wright's first of three 8-6 OVC records. Wright ranked second in the balloting for conference coach of the year.

In his second season, Wright coached the Eagles to a three-way tie for second place in the OVC. The team finished 16-8 for the season, Wright's best to date.

His three-season college coaching record is 40-29, and he hopes to improve it this season. Wright stresses the importance of team play, hustle, desire, and winning.

He is a strong fundamentalist in his basketball teaching, and has operated on the theory that good fundamentals and good conditioning equal winning basketball teams.

Wright coached high school basketball for 13 years before joining the collegiate ranks at Morehead. His teams compiled 329 wins against only 72 losses.

The highpoint of Wright's high school coaching career came in 1961, when his team at Ashland's Paul Blazer High School won the state championship and he was named Kentucky "Coach of the Year." He coached six years at Ashland.

The coach is a 1950 graduate of Marshall University, where he received the AB degree with a major in physical education and a minor in biological sciences. He received the MA degree in education from Morehead in 1961.

During his collegiate playing career, Wright was basketball captain during his senior year and named outstanding athlete at Marshall. He averaged 19.5 points a game his senior year, and 18.3 his junior season.

A native of Pike County, Wright graduated from Elkhorn City High School in 1944. His team played in the state tournament during his junior and senior years.

Wright is married to the former Helen Louise Anderson, a classmate at Marshall. They have a son Bob, Jr., and a daughter Sarabert.

Leon Schrader – Assistant Coach

Leon Schrader, 26, is serving as assistant coach to Wright this season.

A native of Franklin County, Schrader was an all-state honorable mention at Franklin County High School. He was the captain four years at Kentucky Christian College, where he had a four-year average of over 26 points a game as a forward and guard. Twice Schrader scored 48 points for Kentucky Christian.

Schrader holds an AB degree from Kentucky Christian and both the AB and MA degrees from Morehead State University. In 1966 he received the Sigma Delta Award for being the outstanding physical education major at Morehead.

An ordained minister, Schrader served seven years as minister at Slate Valley Christian Church at Owingsville. He is married to the former Patty Jo Church of Frankfort.

The Outlook

With ten veterans returning, this year's team is more experienced and taller than last year's Eagles. The only starter missing from last year's squad, which posted a 12-9 overall and 8-6 conference records, is 6' 5" forward Larry Jordan, who graduated.

Jordan averaged 15.7 points per game, but junior Ron Gathright, who averaged 9.4 points and 8.8 rebounds last season as a part-time starter, is expected to help fill the void.

Recovered from a knee injury which hampered him much of last season, center Willie (Hobo) Jackson should surpass the form displayed as a sophomore, when he was selected All-Ohio Valley Conference honorable mention. The 6' 6½" senior averaged 14.3 points and 9.4 rebounds last season and 13.3 points and 12 rebounds as a sophomore.

Other returning starters include 6' 7" Lamar Green, a senior forward who averaged 12.8 points and 14.2 rebounds last year, and 6' 2" Jerry Conley, a senior guard who led the team in scoring with a 16.5 average in 21 games last year. Both Green and Conley were named to the All-OVC team.

Battling it out for the other guard position are Bobby Hiles, Danny Cornett, and Randy Williams. Hiles, a 6' 1" junior who became eligible second semester last season after transferring from the University of Kentucky, was the top free throw shooter on the team. Cornett, a 6' 1" senior, averaged 9.2 points last year. Williams, a 5' 10" senior, saw only limited action last season because of an injured knee.

Conley and Cornett are deadly outside shooters, and Williams and Hiles are adept ball handlers.

Also returning from last year's squad are four juniors: Don Byars, Jerry Umberger, Terry Sandfoss, and John Fugate.

Byars, a 6' 3" forward-guard, averaged 3.1 points in 11 games last year, and on one occasion scored 14 points. Umberger, a 6' 6" forward, saw action in 14 contests. Sandfoss, a 5' 10" guard who is the brother of former Eagle star Jim Sandfoss, played in seven contests, and Fugate, a 6' 5" forward, played in four.

Top sophomores up from last year's freshman team are Jim Day, a 6' 8" forward-center; Jerry Hueseman, a 6' 6" forward; Alan Harney, a 6' 6" forward; and John Sewell, a 6' 4" guard. Day and Hueseman are on the regular traveling team. The sophomores are counted on to supply necessary depth.

As usual, Coach Bob Wright is optimistic about the team's chances in the tough OVC race. He feels that the team can be a real contender.

The Players

Jerry Conley, Guard

The 6' 2" senior, who was an All-OVC selection, has the tools to repeat in 1968-69. An excellent jump shooter, Conley is a hard driver and one of the fastest men on the squad. He was an All-State selection in both basketball and football at Jenkins High School. He is a very rugged competitor and an excellent defensive guard. His 16.5 point-average topped the team.

Lamar Green, Forward

Morehead's second All-OVC team member last season, Green is an excellent jumper and rebounder. Green, a deadly shot from the corners, averaged 12.8 points and 14.2 rebounds in 20 games last season. He is an excellent defensive rebounder, and he has a good touch. The 6' 7" senior should help form one of the best rebounding front lines in the conference.

Willie (Hobo) Jackson, Center

One of the greatest centers ever to enroll at Morehead, the 6' 6½" senior is recovered from a knee injury which slowed him most of last season. He was an honorable mention on the OVC team during his sophomore year. One of the friendliest persons on campus, "Hobo" is a rugged individual performer who gives a top effort every time he steps on the court. He twice scored 30 points last season—against Western on January 15 and against Tennessee Tech on February 24.

Ron Gathright, Forward

The 6' 3" junior, who averaged 9.4 points and 8.8 rebounds last year, will move into the regular starting lineup this season. Gathright, who was an All-State performer in both football and basketball at Thomas Jefferson High School in Louisville, was a varsity fullback in 1967 but gave up football to devote full time to basketball. He is a quick, fierce competitor with an excellent jump shot and fine defensive moves.

Bobby Hiles, Guard

An All-State selection at Maysville High School, Hiles transferred to Morehead from the University of Kentucky. He became eligible the second semester last year and hit 86.1 per cent of his free throws. He is an excellent playmaker and passer. His quickness and fast thinking make him a valuable floor man. He is a 6' 2" junior. Hiles, Cornett, and Williams will battle it out for the second starting guard position.

Danny Cornett, Guard

This 6' 1" senior guard is a product of University Breckinridge High School in Morehead, where he scored 87 points in one contest. Cornett, a hustling playmaker with a deadly jump shot, averaged 9.2 points a game last season. He is a scoring threat from any point on the floor. On one occasion, he scored 18 points last season. He connected on almost 47 per cent of his field goal attempts.

Randy Williams, Guard

Speedy Randy Williams was able to participate in only seven games last year because of an injured knee. The 5' 10" playmaker is an exceptional defensive man. A hard-nosed scrapper who gives 100 per cent effort, he is a good jump shooter from the top of the key. He should see lots of action this year.

Don Byars, Forward

A quick, high-jumping junior, Byars was a valuable substitute last season. Byars saw action in 11 contests, and he hit 52.2 per cent of his field goal attempts. The 6' 3" defensive ace, who plays both forward and guard, is a better than average rebounder for his size.

Jerry Umberger, Forward

This 6' 5" junior will provide valuable depth on the front line. Umberger played in 14 games last year and grabbed 18 rebounds. He is a strong defensive man and an average shooter, and he has a lot of basketball knowledge. He played for Coach Wright at Paul Blazer High School in Ashland.

James Day, Center-Forward

At 6' 8", sophomore Jim Day is the tallest man on the squad. Day, a standout on last year's freshman team, will be counted on as a backup man for Willie Jackson. He is a strong rebounder, and is fast for a man his size. He won all-district, all-regional, and all-state honors at Fairview High School.

Jerry Hueseman, Forward

A freshman team star, Hueseman moves up to varsity action this season. The 6' 6" hustler joins Day, Umberger and Byars as the men who will provide reserve front-line strength for the Eagles. Hueseman, an all-sectional selection at Dillsboro High School in Indiana, should see plenty of action this winter. Hueseman gives 100 per cent hustle and has potential to be a bull on the boards.

Terry Sandfoss, Guard

The younger brother of former Eagle star Jim Sandfoss, Terry is a good ball handler and good defensive man. He is a good jump shooter and is accurate from the free-throw stripe. A junior, Sandfoss saw action in seven games last year, and might play quite a bit this year. At 5' 9", he is the shortest man on the team, but makes up in hustle what he lacks in height. He was a high-school star at Newport Catholic.

John Sewell, Guard

At 6' 4" and 200 pounds, Sewell is the largest guard on the squad. After starring for the frosh last year, Sewell has been promoted to the varsity, where he could see considerable action. He played basketball four years at nearby Clark County, where he won all-district and all-region honors as a center and forward. He is a playmaker and accurate passer.

John Fugate, Forward

The 6' 3½" junior saw some action as a substitute last year. He is a good hook shooter, a strong competitor, and a dedicated athlete who loves to win. Fugate, who starred at Ezel High School, is an average defensive man. Coach Wright called Fugate's hook shot "one of the best we have seen."

Larry McKenzie, Forward

Up from the freshman team, McKenzie, who stands 6' 6" and weighs 185, could use more weight, Coach Wright said. He is not quite aggressive enough at this stage, but this should come with experience. McKenzie, who played four years at Flat Gap High School, is a good shot from the corners. He should see quite a bit of action as a substitute this season.

Alan Harney, Forward

At 6' 6" and 200 pounds, Harney is a strong, rugged competitor. The sophomore forward has a lot of potential, but he needs to work on his jumping, Wright said. An All-State forward at Bourbon County, Harney could be a real asset to the team. His rebounding ability should improve with experience.
